Local Boy Participates In The Sun Bowl Game

Billy Guthrie, a 1973 graduate of Appomattox County High School and a star football player for the Raiders, was one of 75 players from the University of North Carolina picked to participate in the Sun Bowl Football Game when UNC played Mississippi State at El Pasco, Texas. Guthrie, a 6 foot 3 inch, 235 pound tackle, is majoring in Recreation and Education at the University of North Carolina.

Raiders Win One Drop Three

By Joe Vaughan

The Appomattox Raiders, hurting with lack of height and experience, gave up three out of their last four games, but have been working hard this week and seem to be getting ready for this Friday night's game, as they take on Nelson.

The Raiders were putting up a good fight with Gretna, as the first half ended with Gretna leading by 3, 37-34. In the second half though, the Raiders fell further behind, as Gretna went on to win 87-64. Leading scorers for Appomattox were Hal Smith,11; David Kelso, 10; and Mitch Eggleston with 9.

The same story seemed to strike the Raiders when they played Amherst, when the half ended 27-25, the Raiders only 2 points behind. Amherst won 65-42. Leading scorers were Enoch Robinson, 10; David Kelso 8; Tommy (Turkey) Wingfield, a prominant young sophomore, with 5, and Dickie Kelso, also with 5.

Luck hit hard again as the Raiders were down by only one point in the Altavista game, when the 1st half ended 41-40. Again Appomattox fell behind and lost 81-67. Enoch Robinson lead the scoring with a big 23 points, while Dickie Kelso had 14. James Robinson, 12; and Hal Smith, 8. Mitch Eggleston and David Kelso had 4 each.

The Staunton River game was a different story. The Raiders had a good lead as the first half ended 41-28. The third quarter seemed closer as Staunton River charged back and cut the Raiders from a 13 point lead to a 5 point lead. The game ended neck in neck, with the Raiders on top, 58-57. Mitch Eggleston was leading scorer with sixteen points, while David Kelso and Dickie Kelso both had 13, and Enoch Robinson, 11; Hal Smith with 5.

Raiders and Raiderettes Look Good

By Joe Vaughan

According to head coach Cliff Morris, of the Appomattox Boys Varsity Basketball Squad, and head coach Louise Martin, of Appomattox girls' varsity basketball squad, their two teams look exceptionally well, considering the lack of experience that has plagued them.

Both teams have lost key players in graduating classes, as all high schools do, one time or the other, and are having to rebuild with players not yet experienced. This could be a big problem, but credit falls on the coaches for doing a fine job as most of their losses have not been by wide margins, which means the teams are hanging in there with everything they have.

Appomattox never gives up, as both teams are still fighting for a good rank in the standings. Remember to support your team as sports play a major role in the lives of youth today.

Raiderettes Edge Altavisita 35-31

By Joe Vaughan

The Appomattox Raiderettes, after undergoing a hard battle Saturday night, finally came up with the winning points, as they edged by the Altavista girls' team 35-31.

When the first quarter ended, things had only begun to be rough, as the two teams were tied up 8-8, with Mary Jane Smith scoring all eight points for the Raiderettes.

The second quarter proved to be just as hard as Appomattox went into the half with a slim one point advantage, 14-13.

Even though Altavista fought back hard in the third quarter, the Raiderettes were able to maintain their one point lead. As the quarter ended, the score was a tight 24-23.

In the fourth quarter, the Raiderettes were able to insure themselves with eleven more points, as they went on to beat Altavista 35-31.

Marjane Smith was high scorer for the Appomattox Raiderettes, with 22 points. Other important players who helped the team win were Debbie McIvor with 5 points, and Cindy Harris and Connie Murray, both with 4 points each.
